about the

San Joaquin Valley Housing Collaborative

The San Joaquin Valley Housing Collaborative is a regional 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that formed out of the California Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley Housing Workgroup. The Collaborative works to address housing issues that affect households and communities in the San Joaquin Valley. For nearly a decade, the Collaborative has served as a much-needed forum to discuss regional housing challenges, and strategies, and resources. The Collaborative serves as an invaluable tool for the region to organize as a united voice when advocating with state and federal policymakers and regulatory agencies.

purpose

- 1. Advocate. Bring together a diverse group of interested partners and stakeholders from across the state to bolster advocacy for affordable, healthy neighborhoods and communities throughout the San Joaquin Valley.
- 2. Educate. Educate partners and stakeholders on the challenges and opportunities faced in holistic community and affordable housing development.
- 3. Build Capacity and Collaboration. Increase the quality of collaboration and partnerships across and within stakeholder groups to build traction for affordable housing.

audience

- Affordable Housing Developers
- Financial Institutions and Lenders
- City, County, State / Other Government Staff
- Community Advocates
- Nonprofit Organizations
- Elected Officials
- Health Professionals
- Architecture and Real Estate Professionals
- Housing Counselors
- Service providers
- Building and Trade Groups

objectives

1. Education on the diversity of existing funding and strategic opportunities, to eventually have more resources going towards improving housing options and communities throughout the region.
2. Trainings and workshops on current issue, policies, capacity building, and funding.
3. To elevate the issue of housing quality and affordability and its links to other issues.
4. Increased awareness of the particular housing conditions and climates in the San Joaquin Valley.
5. Resource sharing and reviews of best policies, partnerships, and practices.

outcomes

- Partners and constituents are motivated and optimistic about existing opportunities to improve housing affordability and health outcomes for their communities.
- Identification of best practices, initiatives, and efforts that can be replicated or bolstered.
- New partnerships and networks established across and within sectors.

about the organizers

The California Coalition for Rural Housing (CCRH) is a statewide nonprofit organization that works to ensure affordable housing opportunities for low income households in California. Formed in 1976 following a farmworker housing conference, CCRH is one of the oldest state low-income housing coalitions in the country. Through advocacy, community organizing, technical assistance, research and education, our goal is to make the case for rural housing improvement and strengthen the capacity of the nonprofit and public sectors to provide affordable housing and related facilities.

8th Annual San Joaquin Valley Affordable Housing Summit

"A HOME FOR ALL" September 19, 2019 Wyndham, Visalia

California's housing crisis is just as pervasive in the San Joaquin Valley as anywhere else in the State. How will our region respond to the unique challenges and opportunities our communities face? Join housing specialists, community development professionals, elected officials, service providers, and community advocates for the 8th Annual San Joaquin Valley Affordable Housing Summit. This year's summit is sure to be the biggest yet, offering more workshops, round-tables, and networking opportunities than ever before.

Past Summits have been held in Fresno (2012, 2013, 2017), Stockton (2014, 2018), and Bakersfield (2015)
